GULP Debate Reflection

Directions: Part of the learning process is reflecting on your thinking after you have completed an assignment. Below, please use COMPLETE SENTENCES to reflect on the GULP debate presentation we have been working on this week. You may make comments based on your OWN presentation and argumentative skills or what you saw through being a jury member.

)WI	N presentation and argumentative skills or what you saw through being a jury member.
1.	What was something you learned about presentation skills through this debate that you didn't know before?
2.	What is something you learned about argumentative skills through this debate that you didn't know before?
3.	What is something you have learned about a court case that you didn't know before?

4. What is something you will do differently as a presenter next time we do a court debate presentation?

5.	What is something you saw someone else do that you would like to try in future presentations?
6,	What aspect of this presentation style is most important (in your opinion)persuasive techniques, argumentative structure, or presentation skills?
	Turn this in when you are done!
