Dear 7th grade students,

I wanted to take this opportunity to tell you a little more about me, Lindsey Isaacs. First and foremost, this is my sixth year teaching 7th grade. Can you imagine spending everyday with 12 and 13 year olds? Weird, right? But... I really LOVE my job! I enjoy coming to work everyday and seeing my students and hearing their stories. My family means everything to me, specifically my two younger brothers, Dusty and Corey. As you probably have already seen, I am very outgoing and sarcastic.

Outside of spending time with my family, I like to exercise, travel, and watching Netflix. NETFLIX IS THE BEST THING EVER!! This past summer, I went to Europe with my mom. We had the most amazing time travelling from London, to Paris, and finally to Barcelona. In terms of exercising, I don't love to run. But I do enjoy walking and rollerblading--even though it's kinda weird! When I'm not traveling or exercising, you can find me on the couch watching FRIENDS. At MMS, I am the yearbook advisor and I coach Girls on the Run with Mrs. Hugentobler and Miss Rossi. As you can see, my school year is as busy as New York City at Christmas time.

Even though I am a teacher, I was also a student this summer. I recently completed my Master's degree through Miami University. WOOOO!! I am a decent writer, meaning I can come up with ideas pretty quickly, and I love to read memoirs and mystery novels. Scary. When I was younger, I didn't like to read informational or non-fiction texts, but as an adult I enjoy it more. I am a very visual learner--and I'm terrible at learning auditorily! I also want my teachers to be accepting and honest with me, in order to make me a better learner. Which is the whole idea of school, Right?

As I have already mentioned this year, I love quotes. I think it's important to have a life philosophy. One of my favorite quotes is, "Life is what happens when you are busy making plans." This is one of my favorite quotes because, as I have gotten older, I have found out that it is SO true. When I was in grade school, I thought I had my life all planned out--boy was I wrong! But that's okay! Because, as the famous musician John Lennon says, "Life is what happens when you are busy making other plans." So I have learned that if you just let life happen, it can be awesome, even if it doesn't go exactly the way you planned it!

Thanks for giving me the opportunity to share more about myself with you. I am looking forward to a great year!

Sincerely,

Ms. Isaacs
