

Name: _____

If You Really Knew Me Rubric

Below is a list of the requirements for this poem along with their point value. Your personal writing is very subjective and we want to celebrate the writing that you've created by highlighting areas of the assignment that you excelled in while also giving constructive feedback to help you become a better writer.

This could have looked a little different by...	Requirements/ Standards	This was well done because...
	Content: 10 points The information you share in your poem shows evidence of deeper thought and reflection. You choose concise and descriptive language.
	Format: 5 points Your poem follows the format of the outline given in class. Stanzas are created with intention to add meaning.
	Language: 5 points You choose precise and descriptive language. There is evidence that you've gone back through your writing to make the words stand out.
	Mechanics: 5 points Even though it's a poem, there is still evidence of thoughtfulness in capitalization and spelling as well as other basic grammar conventions.

Total: 25 points