

Name _____

Quarter 3, Week 4 Vocabulary—Your words for the week are underlined. Try to define the meaning of the word based on the other words in the sentence. Circle the words or phrases that helped you to define the word. Then, determine if it is an adjective, noun, or verb.

1. He has such a great personality that allows him to have strong rapport with just about anyone he meets, young or old.

2. After she forgot the words of the national anthem while on live TV, she somehow managed to keep her poise, recollect her thoughts, and not let her emotions get the best of her. She remembered the words and sang the rest of it beautifully.

3. The judge revoked my driver's license since I got five speeding tickets in one year.

4. Katniss's best attributes include her toughness, loyalty, and resourcefulness.

5. Love and hatred are not palpable things; they can only be experienced.

6. Running a marathon is extremely arduous, and while running or afterwards, severe cramping, pain, or dehydration are all possible.

7. Even though it was only 3:00pm, the ominous clouds that had gathered in the sky sent a chill down my spine.

8. Many of the conflicts in The Hunger Games are contrived, not occurring naturally but actually controlled by the Gamemakers.

Quarter 3, Week 4 Vocabulary (The Hunger Games)

1. Rapport—

2. Poise—

3. Revoke—

4. Attributes—

5. Palpable—

6. Arduous—

7. Ominous—

8. Contrived—

Quarter 3, Week 4 Vocabulary (The Hunger Games)

1. Rapport—

2. Poise—

3. Revoke—

4. Attributes—

5. Palpable—

Quarter 3, Week 4—Fill in the blanks with the best word.

Palpable Revoked Poised Rapport Attributes

1. I get so nervous when I am public speaking and have a hard time with _____ . My voice and hands are both shaky.
2. The teacher _____ the students' privileges to work in the hall after she caught them playing video games and not doing their work.
3. My new car has many _____ that my old car did not, including heated seats, Bluetooth, and navigation.
4. Since I am friendly, hardworking, and pretty smart, it is easy for me to have good _____ with my peers and teachers.
5. I can touch my nose, cheeks, and ears, but my liver and spleen are not _____ .

Quarter 3, Week 4—Fill in the blanks with the best word.

Palpable
Contrived

Revoked
Rapport

Ominous
Attributes

Poised
Arduous

1. I get so nervous when I am public speaking and have a hard time with _____ . My voice and hands are both shaky.
2. The teacher _____ the students' privileges to work in the hall after she caught them playing video games and not doing their work.
3. Cutting down the tree and stacking up all the lumber was a(n) _____ task that took us all afternoon.
4. The ending of such a well-developed story seemed _____ and disappointed me beyond belief.
5. My new car has many _____ that my old car did not, including heated seats, Bluetooth, and navigation.
6. Since I am friendly, hardworking, and pretty smart, it is easy for me to have good _____ with my peers and teachers.
7. I can touch my nose, cheeks, and ears, but my liver and spleen are not _____ .
8. We were home alone, so the storm raging outside and every creak of the steps created a(n) _____ mood that would have never existed had my parents been home.