

Name _____

Quarter 3, Week 2 Vocabulary—Your words for the week are underlined. Try to define the meaning of the word based on the other words in the sentence. Circle the words or phrases that helped you to define the word. Then, determine if it is an adjective, noun, or verb.

1. When I wasn't chosen to be the lead in the play, I smiled and clapped and put on a happy façade, but as soon as I could, I ran into the bathroom and cried.
2. The American citizen was discovered to be a spy for Pakistan after he was found illegally making copies of national security documents; he was soon arrested for treason.
3. A student's perception of an incident is often very different than an adult's.
4. In The Hunger Games, District 12 is a dystopia filled with much hunger and suffering.
5. After a school year of intense learning, I reaped the benefits of all that work once I received my exceptional scores on the PARCC assessment.

6. In a utopian world, there would be no crime, poverty, struggle, or sadness.

7. Her sarcastic comment was very ambiguous, and I couldn't even tell by her tone if she was angry or just joking

8. In the middle of many Thanksgiving tables rests a cornucopia full of corn, gourds, pumpkins, and sometimes other vegetables.

Quarter 3, Week 2 Vocabulary (The Hunger Games)

1. Façade—

2. Treason—

3. Perception—

4. Dystopia—

5. Reaped—

6. Utopian—

7. Ambiguous—

8. Cornucopia—

Quarter 3, Week 2 Vocabulary (The Hunger Games)

1. Façade—

2. Treason—

3. Perception—

4. Dystopia—

5. Reaped—